BCSD Update on School Reopening Plans:

Today, Governor Andrew Cuomo announced that all schools in New York State are authorized to open for the 2020-2021 school year. The Binghamton City School District will provide parents with additional opportunities to ask questions about the district's reopening plans in the next two weeks. We will provide details on those opportunities in upcoming communications.

The reopening page on the district website is continually being updated with important information. Please use that page as a resource in the days and weeks ahead. Thank you for your continuous support of our plans and options, as we work to provide safe and accessible environments for learning.

Educating, empowering and challenging all students to become productive, global citizens through innovative approaches to learning.
